BOOK CLUB & LITERARY WRITING

Jen coaches 8th graders to read, analyze, and write about classical literature that students will encounter in their high school English classes. Students will learn how to do in-depth reading, interpret themes/symbols/characters, and write literary analysis paragraphs/essays—properly citing and analyzing quotes.

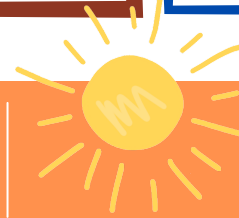

NYT CRITICAL THINKING, READING, & DISCUSSION

Jen chooses articles from The NYT but edits/revises the contents herself to make the articles easier for 7th and 8th graders to understand and assimilate the sophisticated writing styles of The NYT article authors. Students will learn to fully interpret the text articles and write their thoughts/opinions on what's happening in our society, cultivating critical thinking as well.
